My 3 Strands for Moms

A child and mother, with God's hands, knit a union of 3 Strands.
 Three cords of love, faith and hope weave a tighter bond than rope.
 One greater love, a braid of three, formed by God, my child and me.
 May my 3 Strands be always near; my child, my gift with God is here.

My 3 Strands for Dads

A child and father, with God's hands, knit a union of 3 Strands.
 Three cords of love, faith and hope weave a tighter bond than rope.
 One greater love, a braid of three, formed by God, my child and me.
 May my 3 Strands be always near; my child, my gift with God is here.

My 3 Strands for Family

A home united by God's hands, knits a family of 3 Strands.
 Three cords of love, faith and hope weave a stronger bond than rope:
 One greater love, a braid of three, God, myself, my family.
 May all 3 Strands combine to say respect and honor every day.

My 3 Strands for Marriage

A man and woman, with God's hands, knit a marriage of 3 Strands.
 Three cords of love, faith and hope weave a stronger bond than rope:
 One greater love, a braid of three, formed by God, my spouse and me.
 May my 3 Strands be lifelong friends with happiness that never ends.

My 3 Strands for Eternity

A deceased loved one in God's hands lives the fullness of 3 strands.
 Three cords of love, faith and hope weave a stronger bond than rope:
 One lasting love, a braid of three, God, my deceased ones and me.
 May these 3 strands unite as one at home with God when time is done.

My 3 Strands for Friends

Two caring people with God's hands, knit a friendship of 3 Strands.
 Three cords of love, faith and hope weave a stronger bond than rope:
 One greater love, a braid of three, formed by God, my friends and me.
 May my 3 Strands last long and true just like all good friendships do.
